

CONTENTS

List of Tables	xii
List of Maps	xiii
List of Plates	xiv
Abbreviations	xvii
Introduction	1
I. Background and the Eve of the Sasanian Invasion: 602 to 614	9
The Christian Population of Palestine	9
The Reign of Phocas	13
The Ecclesiastical Hierarchy	17
Pilgrimage	18
Other Evidence for Christians	18
Conclusions	19
II. The Sasanian Occupation: 614 to 628	20
The Sasanian Invasion	20
The Jews and Their Military Involvement	26
The Bedouin Tribes	31
The Siege and Sack of Jerusalem	33
The Years of the Sasanian Occupation	39
The Impact of the Sasanian Interlude	47
III. The Byzantine Recovery: 628 to the 630s	49
Heraclius' Visit to Jerusalem	49
The Patriarch Modestus	52
Byzantine Reorganization	54
Relations between the Muslims and the Arab Tribes	56
The Monothelite Controversy	57
Anastasius the Persian	63
Pilgrimage	64

Church Construction	65
Conclusions	67
IV. The Islamic Conquest: the Mid-630s to 640	68
The Events of the Conquest	68
The Nature of the Conquest: the Literary Evidence	69
The Nature of the Conquest: Archaeological Evidence	77
The Jews and Bedouins	80
The Reaction of the Conquered Population	81
Other Aspects of the Conquest	82
Conclusion	83
V. The Early Islamic Period: 640 to 813	85
The Umayyad Period	85
The 'Abbāsid Revolution	90
The Early 'Abbāsid Period	91
The Civil War (809–13)	93
Later Events	94
Monasticism	96
Relations with the Byzantine Empire	101
Relations with the Carolingians	105
The Ecclesiastical Hierarchy	107
Pilgrimage	109
The Jews and Samaritans	110
Conclusion	110
VI. Churches in the Early Islamic Period: 640 to 813 ..	112
Patterns in Church Use	112
Construction and Repair of Churches	119
The End of Churches	123
Deliberate Destruction	128
Abandonment	128
Later Use of Churches	129
Conversion to Mosques	130
Domestic Occupation	130

Stone Robbing	132
Reasons for Abandonment	134
VII. Muslims and Conversion to Islam	139
The Problem of Identifying Muslims	139
Further Material Evidence for Muslim Presence	145
The Administrative Organization of Palestine	148
Other Literary Evidence for Muslim Presence	152
Overview	156
VIII. Muslim Policies towards Christians	159
The Qur'ān and Muḥammad	159
The Capitulation Treaties	161
Construction and Repair of Churches	161
The Display of Crosses	163
Other Legal Restrictions	166
Taxation	167
Other Aspects	170
Martyrdom and Apostasy	171
Government Involvement in Christian Affairs	177
Chalcedonian and Non-Chalcedonian Christians	178
IX. Iconoclasm	180
The Archaeological Evidence	181
Geometric Mosaics in Churches	181
Church Mosaics with Images	183
Figurative Mosaics Suffering Iconoclastic Damage	189
Analysis of the Archaeological Evidence	195
Other Types of Iconoclastic Damage	200
Iconoclastic Damage in Synagogues	202
Mosaics in Secular Buildings	204
Images in Muslim Buildings	205
Damage to Images Outside of Palestine	205
The Date of the Damage	207
The Identity of the Iconoclasts	209

The Literary Sources for Christian Use of Images	210
The Literary Sources for Muslim Views about Images . . .	213
The Motivation for the Damage	218
Conclusion	220
Corpus of Sites	225
Information about the Corpus of Sites	227
Transliteration of Site Names	227
Sites Included in the Corpus	228
Format of the Entries	228
List of Sites	231
Abila-el-Azraq	239
Bacatha-Busra	256
Caesarea-Choura	276
Darum-Duweikhla	280
‘Ein ed-Dirweh-‘Evron	290
Fara el-Hashimiya	298
Gaza-Gush Halav	298
Haditha-Hurvāt Bodeda	301
Irbid	313
Jabal Harun-Jericho	314
Jerusalem	325
Intramuros Sites	327
Extramuros or not Definitely Located Sites	340
Sites on the Mount of Olives	350
Jifna-el-Jubeiha	359
el-Kafr-Kursi	361
el-Lejjun-Luzit	388
Ma‘ale Adummim-el-Muwaqqar	391
Nabi Samwil-Nitl	416
Orman-‘Ozem	422
Paneas-Phossaton	423
Qabr Hiram-el-Quweisma	429
er-Rabba-Rujm Sakhari	434
Sabha-Suweifiya	446
Tanhaj-Tyre	461

Contents

xi

Udhruh-‘Uyun Musa	468
Wadi er-Rawabe-Wilderness of Judaea	481
el-Yaduda-Yubna	482
Zei-Ziza	484
Bibliography	485
General Index	549
Maps and Plates	(following 583)